

AGENDA

Trauma-Informed Housing: Going from Theory to Practice

CONCURRENT SESSION

Friday, December 1st • 8:30am – 10:00am • Meeting Room: Ravinia

Description: During this session we will discuss how different organizations are putting a Trauma-Informed Housing framework into practice at their organizations. We will hear from Preservation of Affordable Housing (POAH) who will share how they frame trauma in the housing context and their efforts to integrate this approach across their organization. We will hear from other members aimed at understanding the key challenges and opportunities to integrate trauma-informed approaches in design, development, and operations, and explore opportunities for HPN to support members with this work.

Welcome

- Meaghan McCarthy, HPN

Discussion

Level setting — What do we mean by Trauma-Informed Housing?

- Julianna Stuart-Lomax, Vice President of Community Impact, Preservation of Affordable Housing
 - POAH's definition of and approach to trauma-informed housing

Where are other groups on their journey?

- What organizations are thinking about or implementing some aspects of trauma informed housing?
- In considering resident services, development/design, property operations, organizational operations, what seems the easiest to tackle, what is the hardest?
- What kind of support would be most helpful?

Wrap-Up and Next Steps

Additional Resources

- Trauma-Informed Housing | A Toolkit for Advancing Equity and Economic Opportunity in Affordable Housing (POAH)