

AGENDA

The Rise on Madison and Blake House: Creative Approaches to Permanent Supportive Housing

OFF-SITE SESSION

Thursday, June 6th • 1:30pm

Description: Seattle's first affordable housing high-rise in over 50 years is a joint development by Bellwether Housing and Plymouth Housing featuring 250 apartments of workforce housing and 112 studio apartments for seniors who have experienced chronic homelessness. Conveniently located to public transport, it features a partnership with Swedish Health services for on-site care. We'll stop by this strikingly beautiful building, take a walk through the neighborhood, and conclude with a discussion of innovative approaches to permanent supportive housing at another of Plymouth's properties – Plymouth on First Hill.

Please note: we will walk to and from this off-site, which will involve approximately 1.5 miles of walking.

Agenda:

- 1:30pm: Group departs Renaissance Hotel for The Rise/Blake House (1014 Boylston Ave).
- 1:45pm: Group will meet outside The Rise/Blake House to learn more about the project.
- 2:00pm: Following initial overview, group will walk to Plymouth on First Hill (710 Cherry St).
- 2:15pm: Group will meet for refreshments and discussion.
- 3:15pm: Optional tour of Plymouth on First Hill.
- 3:45pm: Attendees depart from Plymouth on First Hill to return to the Renaissance Hotel (515 Madison Street).

Bellwether Housing:

- Jacob Gelb, Director of Asset Management
- Michelle Hawley, Vice President of Property Operations

Plymouth Housing:

- Andrea Carnes, Chief Operations Officer
- Sarah Dickmeyer, External Affairs Manager

HPN Lead: Lisa Alberghini, Executive Vice President, Peer Exchange, Policy, & Innovation